[REDACTED]

FINANCE OFFICER

GS - 11

I. DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

25X1A6a

25X1A6a 1. As Finance Officer and Authorized Certifying Officer for [REDACTED], incumbent is responsible for assisting the Senior Finance Officer for furnishing assistance and guidance to all bases and stations in the area on all budgetary, monetary and financial matters. He will act as Senior Officer in the absence of the Senior Finance Officer. As designated Authorized Certifying Officer, he is responsible for implementation and execution within his area of jurisdiction of all responsibilities and activities falling within the purview of that office. 25X1A

[REDACTED]

25X1A 3. Originates memoranda to appropriate station and base personnel notifying them of information required of them in the submission of budget estimates. The memoranda are followed up in order that timely estimates are received. After receipt of the estimates in the finance office, they are checked for mathematical accuracy and for completeness of coverage. The data is then consolidated and transcribed onto official forms and submitted to the Senior Finance Officer for his review and action.

25X1A 4. Assists in the maintenance of financial control of all funds to this area and for establishment of appropriate records to account for such funds at all times. This requires that the provisions of Class "A" Station [REDACTED] are complied with, i.e., records are established to cover the receipt, custody, disbursement, transfer and control of funds made available to the installations in the area.

25X1A 5. Assists in supervising the installation, interpretation and maintenance of the Class "B" Station Accounting and Reporting Procedures, FHB [REDACTED] in each of the installations in the area, and for determining that adequate financial controls are maintained over all financial transactions at the installations. Consolidates financial reports required by [REDACTED] and integration of the results of financial operations into centralized Class "B" accounting system, presenting them to Senior Finance Officer for review before forwarding consolidated financial report to Headquarters.

6. Renders an opinion(s) to the Senior Finance Officer regarding the interpretation of Headquarters and other applicable financial regulations and directives and assisting in the implementation thereof. This requires a thorough knowledge of Agency Regulations, Foreign Service Travel and Allowance Regulations, Joint Travel Regulations and Standardized Travel Regulations. In addition, it requires the ability to interpret NEA Division, Comptroller or Finance Division dispatches and other directives and to render advice and guidance to other Agency personnel accordingly.

7. Reviews and performs administrative audit of all vouchers, accountings, and claims submitted to the finance office for the purpose of determining whether or not funds have been obligated, the propriety of the transactions, compliance with regulations and procedures, and the adequacy of the documentation and justification thereof. This involves determining that the proper entry has been made, the correct allotment account has been charged or credited, the necessary supporting data is attached, the explanation is adequate, and the voucher and all attachments are mathematically correct. Whenever necessary, he consults with employees and officials rendering accountings with particular regard to the development of adequate documentation and justification, and the disallowance of non-allowable items. Upon completion of the foregoing, the vouchers and other documents are transmitted to the Senior Finance Officer for review and/or other appropriate action.

8. Assists in the establishment and revision of financial and control procedures for the stations serviced within the region, subject to prescribed general Headquarters policies and procedures. Assists in the review and analysis of the status of operations and other advances and takes appropriate administrative action to effect settlement within established due dates. Advises operating personnel on financial matters concerning their specific activities both in an operating and a planning capacity.

II. SUPERVISION RECEIVED

The incumbent is under the general administrative and technical supervision of the Regional Finance Officer, [REDACTED].

25X1A6a

III. QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED

As prescribed in [REDACTED]

25X1A

IV. DISTINGUISHING FEATURES

This position is distinguished from the next lower level inasmuch as the incumbent functions as Finance Officer and Authorized Certifying Officer and acts for his superior during the latter's absence. It is distinguished from the next higher level by the absence of overall responsibility for the activities of the Finance Office on a continuing basis.
